

WELCOME TO NIZHNY NOVGOROD!

Nizhny Novgorod is an old Russian city. It is situated in the heart of Russia on the high bank of the Volga at the place where the Oka falls into it.

Nizhny Novgorod is one of the largest cities of Russia. It was founded in 1221 by Prince Yury Vsevolodovich. In Nizhny Novgorod you can find some of the best theatres, cinemas and museums.

We are in the centre of Nizhny Novgorod. It is Gorky Square, one of the most famous squares. Here you can see the monument to Maxim Gorky, an outstanding Russian writer who was born in Nizhny Novgorod.

I like Gorky Square very much because there is a monument to Maxim Gorky. It's so nice to walk here. The place is really beautiful!

My favourite place in Nizhny Novgorod is Pokrovskaya street. It is a historic center of the city.

Pokrovskaya Street is a pedestrian street now. Here you can see the State Bank, 3 theatres, 2 cinemas, a lot of cafes and shops. The street is always crowded with people. At night the street is flooded with lights from the shop-windows and the illuminated advertisements.

I like this place because it is one of the oldest streets and you can always meet a lot of interesting and even strange people there.

I would like to tell you about my favourite place in Nizhny Novgorod, it is Minin and Pozharsky Square.

It is the central square. All city holidays take place here. This place is famous because there is a sculpture of two well-known great men, who saved millions lives.

In conclusion I want to say that Minin and Pozharsky Square is a historical and cultural place. Moreover, it is a popular place among citizens, because they like to walk and rest here.

Welcome to Nizhny Novgorod!

Here is the place that contains more historical associations than any other place in Nizhny Novgorod - the Nizhegorodian Kremlin.

It was built in the 16th century and there are 13 towers: 5 of them are square, the rest are round. If only stones could speak... they could tell us many interesting things about the history of our city.

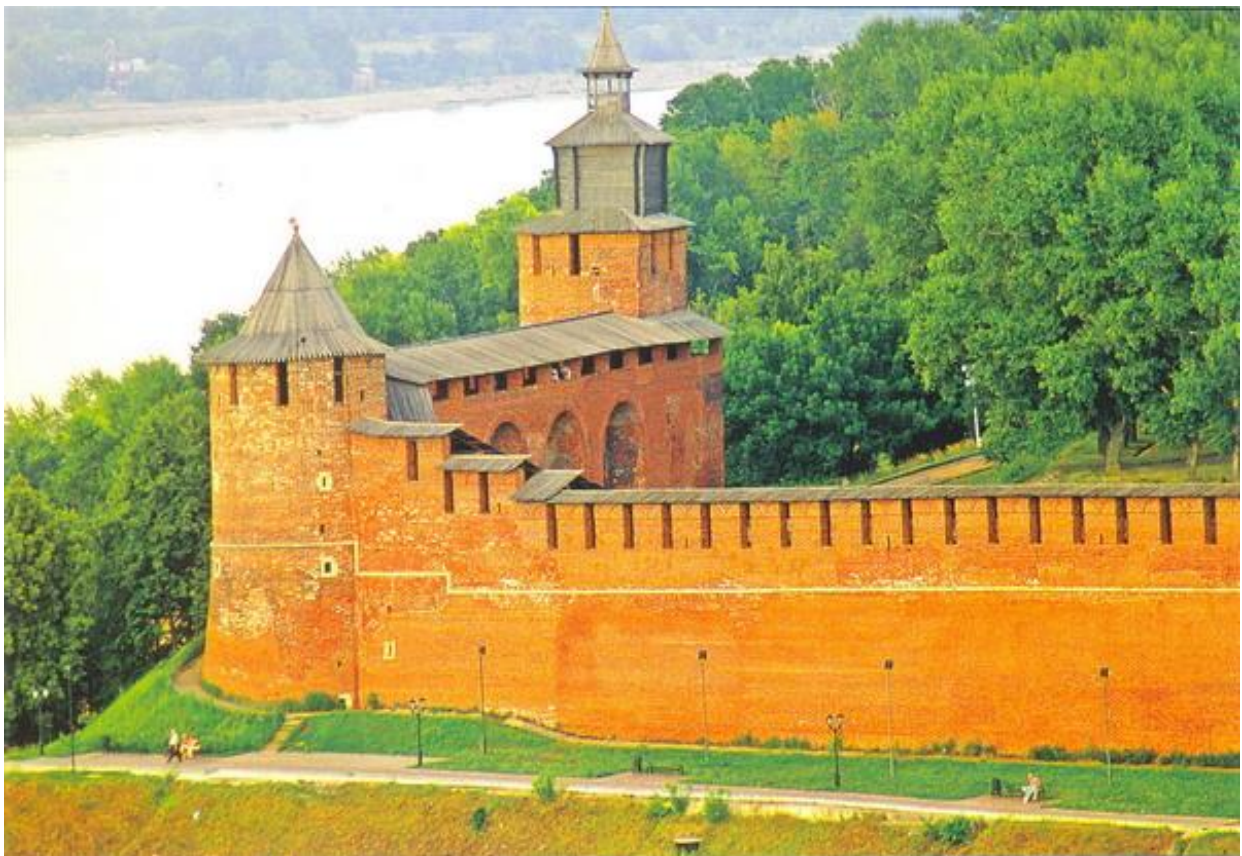

I like the Kremlin very much, it has a long history and there are a lot of interesting places in it.

Come to Nizhniy Novgorod and visit it. It's worth seeing!

My favourite place in Nizhny Novgorod is the Nizhegorodian Kremlin.

Each of the towers has its name: Dmitrievskaya tower,
Kladovaya tower, Nikolskaya tower, Koromyslova tower,
Tainitskaya tower, Severnaya tower, Chasovaya tower,
Ivanovskaya tower, Belaya tower, Zachatievskaya tower, Borisoglebskaya tower Georgievskaya tower and Porokhovaya tower.

This is my favorite place because here you can see the ancient buildings with your own eyes.

TOWERS of the NIZHNIY NOVGOROD KREMLIN

My favorite place in Nizhny Novgorod is Michael Archangel Cathedral. It is the most ancient construction that has been preserved till nowadays on the territory of the Kremlin.

I like this place because the building is beautiful both inside and outside. The Cathedral reminds us about the history of foundation of our city. Besides, the Michael Archangel Cathedral is located in a beautiful place and you can enjoy picturesque view on the Volga.

The obelisk in honor of Kozma Minin and Dmitry Pozharsky is the oldest monument in Nizhny Novgorod which was built to commemorate the organizers of the Russian people emergency volunteer corps of 1612.

The memorial complex with the Eternal Fire dedicated to people who heroically perished during the Great Patriotic War (1941-1945) was opened in 1965. Every day people come here and bring flowers to those who defended our Motherland.

I like this place because it is a historical place which reminds us about people who defended our country in the Great Patriotic War. Besides it is a very picturesque place.

My favourite place is situated in the Kremlin near Ivanovskaya tower. Here you can see the Memorial Plate to the First Nizhegorodians.

The monument was opened in October 1976.

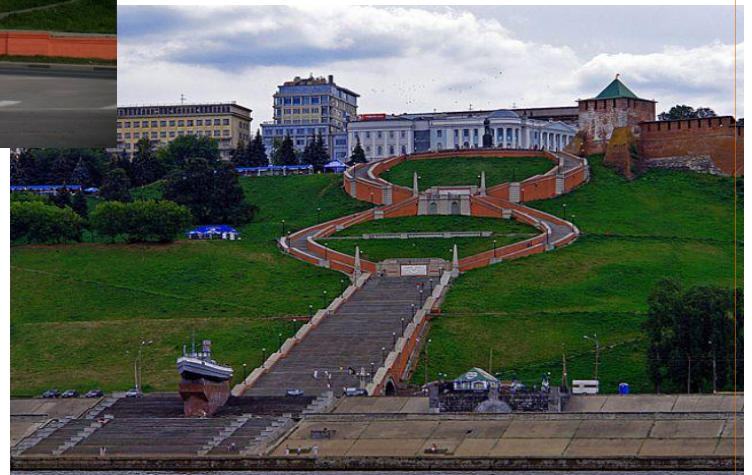

Nizhny Novgorod foundation date and relief images of the first settlers are stamped on the surface of the plate.

I like the place because it is a unique monument for the city, so if you visit Nizhny Novgorod you should necessarily take the opportunity to see it!

My favorite place in Nizhny Novgorod is The Chkalov Staircase. It is to this day a unique architectural embellishment of Nizhny Novgorod and one of its main places of interest. Originally named the Volga Staircase, today it is known as the Chkalov Staircase, named after the world-famous test pilot and hero of the Soviet Union.

Chkalov Staircase consists of 560 steps. It is constructed in the form of the eight that designates infinity. Different events are held at the top of Chkalov Staircase.

The Chkalov Staircase is my favourite place because it is one of the most important sights of our city. You can also enjoy the beautiful view on the Volga there.

My favourite place in Nizhny Novgorod is the monument to Valery Chkalov.

Valery Chkalov was the first man in history to complete a non-stop flight through the North Pole from Moscow into Vancouver (state of Washington, USA). The monument to Valery Chkalov is erected on Minin and Pozharsky Square at the top of the Chkalov Staircase.

I like this place because it is wonderful! It is located in a very picturesque place. You can enjoy the beautiful view of the city standing at this monument.

I would like to tell you about one the most interesting sights in Nizhny Novgorod. It is the monument to Peter the Great.

The monument was erected only some months ago. It is the monument to Russian Emperor Peter the Great who signed a decree of the foundation of the Nizhny Novgorod Province. It was in 1714.

I like to walk in my city and admire its beauty. And I like this monument very much because Peter the Great is an outstanding person in Russian history. And people should know great people.

Our city is full of attractions. And I am proud of it. Welcome to Nizhny Novgorod! It is worth visiting!

The symbol of Nizhny Novgorod and the Nizhny Novgorod region is a deer. A five-meter deer sculpture, created by a Hungarian sculptor was opened on Nizhnevolzhskaya Embankment in honor of 793-year anniversary of Nizhny Novgorod.

I want to tell you about Victory Park.

It is an amazing place that tells us about the history of our country and patriotism of our people. I am very proud that we have such place.

The Victory Park reminds us about 4 years of the Great Patriotic War and the victory of Soviet soldiers over the fascist Germany. Here you can see the exhibition of military equipment.

It's my favourite place because it is our memory and our history. If you visit Nizhny Novgorod, you should visit the Victory Park!

My favorite place in Nizhniy Novgorod is the ropeway.

The world's only ropeway, which has 800-meter unsupported flight over water. The ropeway connects two cities: Nizhniy Novgorod and Bor, and 2 banks of the Volga River. Amazing views from the bird's flight will provide an unforgettable experience!

I like this place because you can enjoy the view of beautiful countryside.

My favorite place in Nizhny Novgorod is Nizhnevolzhskaya Embankment.

Nizhnevolzhskaya Embankment is a nice place to walk and enjoy the view of the Volga. Pedestrian promenade starts from Kanavinsky bridge and continues to the Rowing channel. The most popular walking part of the lower Volga embankment is located at the foot of the hill on which the Kremlin is situated.

I like Nizhnevolzhskaya Embankment very much because it offers a beautiful view of the Volga and I can spend good time there.

My favorite place in Nizhny Novgorod is Kashirin's house. Here you can see how the great writer spent his joyless childhood and feel the oppressive atmosphere of those years.

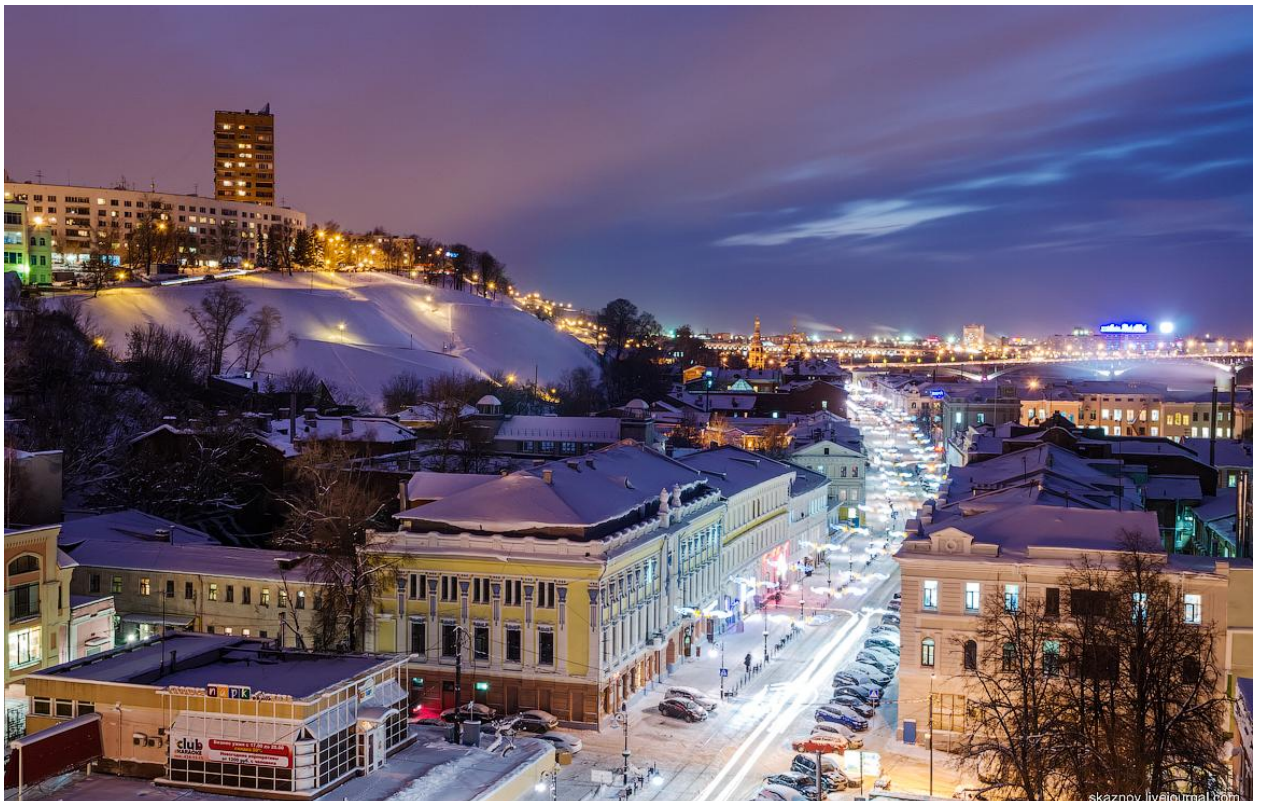

I am sure you should visit the house and learn more about one of the greatest Russian writers!

I would like to tell you about Rozhdestvenskaya Street. It is one of tourists' attractions. It is a unique open-air museum. The main decoration of the old merchant street is Stroganovskaya Church.

I like the place because the historical image of Nizhny Novgorod is preserved here. Besides there are a lot of cafes, shops and monuments. I like to walk along the street with my friends.

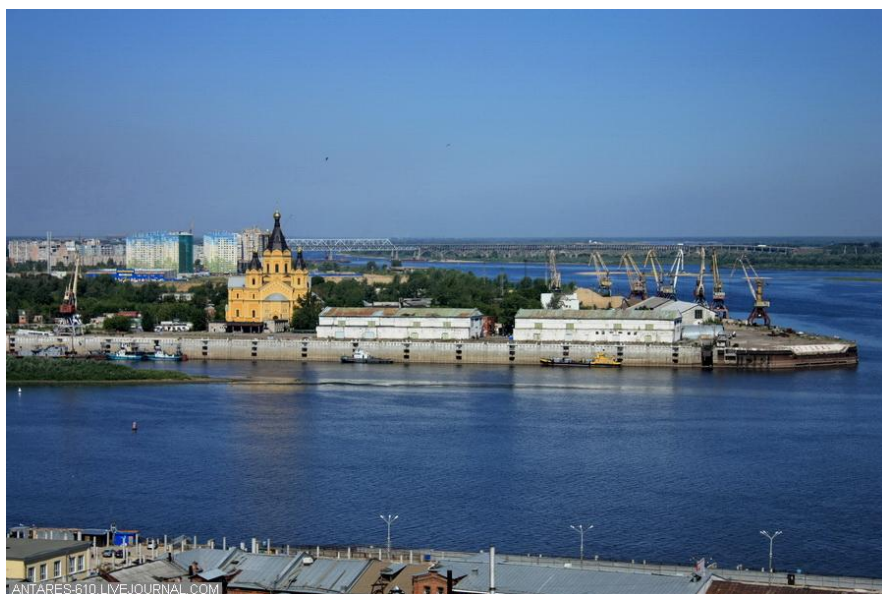

Welcome to Nizhny Novgorod and see our sights and interesting places!

It's Strelka. Strelka is the place where the Oka falls into the Volga. I like this place because there are some of the most famous sights such as Nizhegorodskaya Fair, the old port and the Cathedral of Alexander Nevsky, besides with Strelka offer beautiful views of the river Volga.

In conclusion I'd like to say that Nizhny Novgorod is famous for spectacular river views and you should definitely visit it.

Nizhny Novgorod Fair was originally not of Nizhny Novgorod, but of Makary and was located opposite Lyskovo village down the Volga river. After a devastating fire in 1816 Tsar Alexander I moved it to the left bank of the Oka in front of the Kremlin.

Nizhegorodskaya Fair made Nizhny Novgorod a great centre of commerce and finance. And Nizhny Novgorod is often called “the pocket of Russia”.

Nizhegorodskaya Fair is famous all over the world!
